

New Zealand Government

ARTS COUNCIL OF NEW ZEALAND TOI AOTEAROA

Creative New Zealand is the national arts development agency developing, investing in and advocating for the arts. Creative New Zealand is a central government agency and is New Zealand's main organisation for funding of the arts.

Creative Communities NZ

The Creative Communities Scheme supports and encourages local communities to create and present diverse opportunities for accessing and participating in the arts in New Zealand

Community Arts Councils of Central Otago

Voluntary groups who liaise with CODC to allocate available funding to arts projects for professional and community arts. To coordinate touring exhibitions and performances

Alexandra Community Arts Council
Cromwell Community Arts Council
Roxburgh Community Arts Council
Maniototo Community Arts Council

CODC

Central Otago District Council.

Central Otago District Arts Trust

Funding from CODC for 3 years to implement Central Otago Art's Strategy.

REAP Aotearoa NZ

(Rural Education Activities Programme)
There are thirteen REAP'S around NZ.
REAPs work closely with local government, local trusts, schools and community groups in their area.

Central Otago REAP

Providing learning opportunities to people of all ages across the entire Central Otago community.

Artists and people of Central Otago