

Pinot Noir 2012 - Single Vineyard

A sheltered valley in one of New Zealand's best wine-growing regions is where Domain Road Vineyard calls home. Bannockburn, in Central Otago, enjoys hot summers and cool dry autumns – ideal for producing premium wines.

Gold miners have left their mark on the Central Otago landscape, altering the profiles of the surrounding hills and valleys in their search for the elusive metal. Our Pinot Noir vines grow on a rare Bannockburn site untouched by miners, and delivers a complexity that truly reflects the unique location of the vineyard.

The Wine

The fruit was hand harvested on 13th and 21st April 2012. Following de-stemming and a period of cold soak in stainless steel tanks, the juice was inoculated with selected wine yeasts before fermentation. The wine was aged for approximately 9 months in French Oak barriques, of which 30% was new oak.

Our Pinot Noir 2012 is a vibrant dark purple, with red fruits, violets, spice and char on the nose. The palate displays sweet cherry and plums with hints of spice. This is a full-bodied wine with mouth filling fine-grained tannins, showing concentration and a long lingering finish.
